Feast of the Epiphany

January 6 - 13, 2019

This feast was kept in the East from the third century and its observance spread to the West towards the end of the fourth.

The word Epiphany means manifestation, and just as at Christmas, it is the mystery of God appearing in visible form; only no longer does He show Himself to the Jews alone but "on this day" it is "to the Gentiles that God reveals His Son" (Collect). In a magnificent vision, Isaias beheld the Church as typified by Jerusalem, whither should flock kings and nations, the "multitude of the sea" and the "strength of the Gentiles," coming from afar with countless caravans, singing the Lord's praises and bringing Him frankincense and gold (Epistle). "The kings of the earth shall adore Him, all nations shall serve Him" (Offertory). In today's gospel we see this prophecy fulfilled.

While at Christmas we extolled the union of our Lord's divinity with His humanity, at the Epiphany we honor the mystic union of souls with Christ.

"This day a star led the Wise Men to the manger; this day water was turned into wine at the marriage feast; this day Christ chose to be baptized by John in the Jordan for our salvation, alleluia." So we read in today's liturgy which thus connects this feast with that of the Octave Day and of the Second Sunday after the Epiphany.

At St. Peter's, where are the relics of the Church's first visible head, the liturgical celebration of the entry of the Gentiles into the Church takes place. "In the adoring Magi," says St. Leo, "let us acknowledge the first-fruits of our own calling and faith; and let us commemorate with hearts full of joy the foundations of this our blessed hope. For from this moment we have begun to enter our heavenly patrimony."

Welcome!

Welcome to Saint Joseph's Roman Catholic Parish, one of the few in Michigan to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in Latin, according to the Tridentine Rite. As part of the Society of Saint Pius X, Saint Joseph's seeks to draw souls closer to Christ primarily through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Our mission is apostolic: to preserve and to teach the eternal truths of the Catholic Faith and to nourish souls with the seven Sacraments.
