18th Sunday After Pentecost

October 13 - 20, 2019

This Sunday was in former times left vacant, for since the liturgy of Ember Saturday continued into Sunday morning, today had no Mass text of its own. When later on the custom of waiting until the evening to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice on Ember Saturday had ceased, the Mass composed in the sixth century for the Dedication of the Church of St. Michael at Rome was borrowed for the eighteenth Sunday after Pentecost.

Consequently all the Propers of this Mass refer to the consecration of a church. "I rejoiced at the things that were said to me: We shall go into the house of the Lord" (Introit and Gradual). "Moses consecrated an altar to the Lord" (Offertory). "Bring up sacrifices and come into his courts: adore ye the Lord in His holy court".

We have here a symbol of heaven whither all nations shall flow at the end of time. The Epistle speaks of those who await the revelation of our Lord at His second coming. They will rejoice forever in the Lord's presence in the peace which, according to the prophets, He will give to those who await Him (Introit, Gradual); a peace assured to us by our Lord through His death on the cross.

Already in the Church all enjoy this pardon and peace, thanks to the power which our Lord has entrusted to His priests, and indeed in this Mass, coming after Ember Saturday, allusion is made to the Priesthood. Like our divine Redeemer, who went about exercising His ministry, curing the soul of the paralytic at the same time that he healed his body—"My son, thy sins are forgiven thee"—those who have just been ordained preach the Word of Christ (Epistle), celebrate the Holy Sacrifice (Offertory), and remit sins (Gospel). Thus they prepare men to receive their divine Judge.

Welcome!

Welcome to Saint Joseph's Roman Catholic Parish, one of the few in Michigan to celebrate the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in Latin, according to the Tridentine Rite. As part of the Society of Saint Pius X, Saint Joseph's seeks to draw souls closer to Christ primarily through the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass. Our mission is apostolic: to preserve and to teach the eternal truths of the Catholic Faith and to nourish souls with the seven Sacraments.

Fax: 586-580-9452 • Priests' Residence: 586-784-8405 • Church Phone: 586-677-9511
Phone hours: 9:00 am - noon, 2:00 - 5:15 pm, and 8:00 - 8:25 pm. Emergency calls only outside these times.

Announcements

St. Joseph's Annual Golf Tournament

We were blessed with a wonderful, fun filled day, despite the cloudy skies, at Pine Valley September 28th. The event profited over $17,600. Deo gratias! Thank you to all who joined us and for those who sponsored this very important fundraiser. We couldn't have succeeded without you! The Academy students and families as well as the staff truly appreciate your generous support.

Annual Sportsmen's Dinner Fundraiser

Tickets are available now and will be at the door on October 12th. Please make every effort to attend this important fundraiser event. Contact Tony Hohmann for more information at 810-824-6227 or Ryah Sharpe at 810-543-9589.

Future Funds for the Academy

Over the last 5 weeks, $117.56 was generously donated towards the Future Funds for Academy! Thanks to all who continue to support this fund. The students, families and staff of St Joseph's truly appreciate your sacrifices to help the Academy financially! God bless!

Diamond Winter Gala for Gals

The Continental Breakfast Start-up Meeting will take place October 20th, in St. Philomena Hall after both Masses. The success of this event depends on all the parish gals helping to support this event by donating items, obtaining sponsorships, attending the event of November 24th and encourage family and friends to join us for a very enjoyable and exciting event. Tickets are available for $40. Please make every effort to attend the start-up meeting to discuss the event, sign-up to help and purchase your admission ticket. Sponsorships are available for $100 - $500! Please contact Theresa Fisher for more information at 586-337-5523 or sjfuture@sspx.org.
