Feast of Christ the King

October 27 - November 3, 2019

In the magnificent encyclical Quas Primas, in which Pius XI established the feast of Christ the King, the pope explains why Our Lord Jesus Christ is truly King. He gives two reasons for this.

The first of these reasons is that which the Church calls the hypostatic union, that union between Christ's person and His human nature. Our Lord is King because He is God. There are not two persons in Our Lord Jesus Christ; there is not a human person and a divine person, but only one person: the divine person which directly assumes a human soul and a human body, without the need for a human person. Consequently, Our Lord Jesus Christ – the one who was seen on the roads of Palestine, the one who was seen in Bethlehem as an infant – He is King. And this is not all. He possesses the quality of kingship, but the Church teaches us that by the union of God to Christ's human nature, Our Lord is Savior, Priest and King - essentially. He cannot but be Savior, because He is the only one who can say that He is God. He is the only one who can say is the Priest, the Pontiff, the only one who truly makes a link between heaven and earth. And He is the only one who can say that He is King. Our Lord is truly King not only of the earth but also the King of Heaven. This is the first profound reason for the kingship of Our Lord Jesus Christ. Of this we must be convinced in order to see in Our Lord Jesus Christ our King, our personal King.

But there is also a second reason, and this as well Pope Pius XI explains very well. Our Lord Jesus Christ is King by way of conquest. By what conquest? Because Our Lord Jesus Christ has conquered us all by His blood, by His cross, by Calvary: Regnavit a ligno Deus. God has reigned from the wood, that is to say from the Cross... Yes, Our Lord Jesus Christ, by His Blood and by His Cross, is our King by right. And this is why in the first centuries after the peace of Constantine, when Christians were able to show the cross officially in their churches, in their temples, in their meeting places, they usually represented Our Lord Jesus Christ as King, crowned with the crown of kings. For Christ is our King, and He is such by the Cross.
